Ultrasound Training

At STCD, we are committed to optimizing your industrial processes, improving employee performance, and reducing operating costs.

Our training sessions are delivered by reliability experts and designed using educational approaches based on practical applications and real-world situations. We believe that preventive and predictive maintenance training for your technicians is a key driver of your industrial performance.

Together, let's work to develop your employees' skills to help optimize your operations at a lower cost.

Duration: 1 day (8 hours)
Audience: Maintenance team, foreman, planner, trainer

Content:

- Module 1: Ultrasound – Basic principles
- Module 2: Software
- Module 3: Leak detection
- Module 4: Electrical discharge
- Module 5: Condition-based maintenance
- Module 6: Steam trap

Exercises based on the course content

A maximum of 9 participants is allowed